

When Any Booking Is Made At The Park Via Any Means

- The guest must provide valid credit card details to reception
- The guest will be automatically charged one night's worth of accommodation charges for their booking regardless of the duration to the card that was provided.
- If a group booking is made, only one deposit from one of the group bookings is required.
- Corporate bookings are exempt and instead will be invoiced one night worth of charges to the provided corporate contact.

Policy is subject to management discretion and can be altered at anytime without prior knowledge. By creating a booking via reception, phone, email, online or by other means you agree to this policy and any attempt to block payments being charged may result in appropriate debt collection action undertaken at discretion of management. This policy also does not apply to permanent or long term residents.
